4-H/FFA CLUB DEPARTMENTS

OPEN TO 4-H CLUB AND FFA MEMBERS UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF THE COUNTY EXTENSION AGENTS, 4-H/FFA AND YOUTH

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR 4-H AND FFA EXHIBITS AND ACTIVITIES AT THE GREAT FREDERICK FAIR

1. All 4-H club exhibitors must be enrolled in 4-H through the Frederick County Cooperative Extension Office and meet county age requirements.
2. FFA members must have annual dues paid in their local Maryland FFA Chapter for the current year and be conducting a supervised agricultural experience program under the guidance of the local FFA advisor. FFA members cannot have passed their 19th birthday as of January 1 of the current year when competing in the same class with 4-H members. In order for an individual to exhibit an animal at the Frederick Fair as a FFA member, their FFA record book must have received a State FFA record book award for the year in which they are exhibiting. A list of these award winners will be provided by the Regional FFA Coordinator and/or the State FFA Executive Secretary.
3. County age requirements for 4-H/FFA:
 - A. Juniors (Ages 8-10 by January 1 of current year)
 - B. Intermediates (Ages 11-13 by January 1 of current year)
 - C. Seniors (Ages 14-18 by January 1 of current year)
4. All 4-H club exhibitors must have submitted an acceptable 4-H record book and must have attended at least 50 percent of the local club meetings held during the current year (exception to the meeting requirement: 4-H/FFA member away at college.)
5. If a 4-H'er changes clubs during the course of the year, attendance requirements must be met in both 4-H clubs. The record book is due to the new leader. Approval of the 4-H office is needed.

6. Each member may make one exhibit in each class except where otherwise specified.
7. No entry fee is charged.
8. The extension office will not be responsible for any exhibits.
9. No exhibits will be excused during the week to attend other fairs or shows. Exhibits must stay all week or monies will be forfeited.
10. Decision of the department superintendent is final. Any continued argument may result in disqualification of the entry. Decisions on disqualifying entries should be made on day of entry. Any formal complaints can be filed with the appropriate 4-H educator/ FFA teacher.
11. All entries must be entered electronically. No paper entry forms will be accepted by the 4-H office.

IN-SCHOOL AGRICULTURAL CLASS AND 4-H CLUB PROJECT ENTRIES

12. This division is open to all in-school agricultural classes and 4-H clubs. All items entered in the in-school agricultural class or 4-H club project divisions must have been completed during a 4-H club meeting or in-school agricultural class session. Items exhibited in the 4-H club category will not be eligible for class champion ribbons or champion rosettes. FFA instructors/aids and 4-H club leaders are to enter ALL class entries as a group. (It is hoped that the monies received by the club or chapter will be used to promote agriculture in Frederick County in an educational manner.) All 4-H club and in-school agriculture class individuals will receive one strip ticket if they are not exhibiting in other areas of the 4-H\FFA divisions at The Great Frederick Fair. There will be a limit of five entries permitted per 4-H\FFA member in the club\class. 4-H\FFA members are permitted to enter individually and under the club.
13. FFA members must enter their own exhibits according to the rules and regulations outlined in the fair catalog. All FFA members entering individually must submit entries by July 15. Only electronic entries will be accepted by the 4-H office, and these must be entered by 4 p.m., July 15. Fair catalog and entry information (tags, etc.) are available at the Frederick County Cooperative Extension Office, 330 Montevue Lane, Frederick, MD (8 a.m.- 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday).

ADDITIONAL RULES FOR BUILDING EXHIBITORS

14. First-time junior exhibitors can bring either an adult or older brother/sister in the 4-H Building to help with their entering.
15. Make sure all tags have been completely filled out before bringing exhibits to the fair. Tags are available in the 4-H office, or from your 4-H leader/ FFA advisor. Do not fold, staple or tape tag closed.
16. Bring all entries with the tags attached, and your copy of your entries to the 4-H/FFA Building (Building 12) on the days and times specified elsewhere in the fair catalog.
17. Upon arrival at the building, proceed directly to the departments that you will be entering in; have your entry form with you in order to enter your exhibits.
18. After entering all of your exhibits, make sure that you stop at the check-out table to receive your pass.
19. Entries in 4-H Building classes will be judged as Blue, Red, or White ribbon quality. Juniors and seniors will be judged separately.
20. No item can be exhibited a second year. Each entry must be made by exhibitor and represent current year's work. Exceptions: entries and collections which have been added to (example: leaf, insect collections, sewing samples.)

21. Rosettes will be awarded to both junior and senior champions for each section within each department. Additionally an overall grand champion rosette will be awarded for each department.
22. Exhibits are due according to the schedule listed at the end of the rules and regulation section.
23. Exhibits will be released from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 26. Any exhibits not removed by 2 p.m. will be disposed of at the discretion of the fair board and 4-H office. Exhibits leaving without superintendent's permission will forfeit all premium monies.

The 2004 4-H Dairy Spirit Award is in memory of

Captain Jennifer Shafer Odom,

formerly of Brunswick, MD. This award is to honor the memory of her dedication, perseverance, and her ability to strive to do her best in everything she tried.

She graduated from Brunswick High School in 1988, and from West Point in 1992. Jennifer inspired many people in her lifetime, and her life was cut short serving her country while piloting a US Army plane in Columbia in July of 1999.

This award will be presented on Friday during the LegendDAIRY celebration to a 4-H Dairy enthusiast who is dedicated and perseveres as Jennifer did.

39 Carcass Contest	RIBBON

Swine Carcass Contest Rules:

- 1) Barrows Only.
- 2) Only 1 entry per exhibitor.
- 3) Barrow must be tagged (with state 4-H tag) and weighed in on June 12, 2004.
- 4) This barrow must be one of the eight eligible market hogs that the 4-Her weighs in on June 12, 2004.
- 5) The barrow must be designated for the carcass contest at weigh in on June 12, 2004, and can't be replaced by another barrow.
- 6) The designated barrow for the carcass contest can make a 4-Her have 5 market hogs at Fair for weigh in. This allows 4 for the market show and 1 for the arcass show.
- 7) Barrows will be weighed in Saturday, Sept. 18, 2004, during regular swine weigh-in.
- 8) Barrows are subject to health rules. Barrows showing signs of testicle development or drug residue at slaughter will be disqualified.
- 9) Barrows will be broken into the following weight classes:
 Medium Weight 241-250 lbs
 Medium-Heavy Weight 251-260 lbs
 Heavy Weight 261-271 lbs
- 10) Barrows will be shown on Sunday, Sept. 19, 2004, prior to the 4-H fitting and showing contest.
- 11) Barrows will be sent to slaughter and graded on rail by judge.
- 12) The rail score will reflect quality and yield grade.
- 13) There will be a Grand and Reserve Champion on Hoof; a Grand and Reserve Champion on Rail; and a Grand and Reserve Champion Overall.
- 14) Barrows can be withdrawn from the carcass contest before weigh in on Saturday, Sept. 18, 2004, but can not be replaced with another barrow.
- 15) Due to slaughter capacity the barrow contest may be limited to the top 10 class placings from each class.

Slaughter House:

Mount Airy Meat Locker
(301) 829-0500

Will slaughter animals on Tuesday
 Will buy hogs between 240-270 lbs.
