New entertainers, events on tap for 148th fair
2010 Great Frederick Fair's grandstand shows

FREDERICK, MD — The Great Frederick Fair is living up to its GREAT Ag-xpectations for grandstand entertainment for this year's 148th annual event for all nine nights, September 17-25.

The fair kicks off on the first evening, Friday, Sept. 17, with the sixth annual horse pull in front of the grandstand. Admission to this 5 p.m. event is free.

Also on Friday is the crowning of the 4-H Royalty, the announcement of the county's new Farm Family of the Year, and the recognition of some of the county's top students in the Character Counts Program. It all begins at 7 p.m. in the Livestock Show Arena (Building 32) at the westend of the fairgrounds. This program is also free.

"The whole week from beginning to end is filled with great entertainment," said Jim Grimes, Board president and chairman of the fair's Entertainment Committee. "It's an exceptional lineup for this year's 148th fair celebration. We are very fortunate to attract some of the biggest and newest names in musical entertainment." The lineup also includes three nights of motorsports events.
