TEXAS LONGHORNS

Chair: John Moxley

Additional Rules & Regulations:

1. A calf shown with a cow shall not be older than 210 days of age. A calf shall be at least 180 days of age to show in individual classes. Calf at side may show only in one class-as calf at side with dam or in individual class.
2. Exhibitors are expressly prohibited from altering the physical appearance or features of any animal, with the exception of the trimming of the prepuce hair of bulls and hoof trimming. Exhibitors are encouraged to bathe and brush their cattle and present them in a neat and professional manner. Any animal found by the Show Chairman to be physically altered will be removed from the show.
3. Cattle cannot show both haltered and non-halterd in the same age group within a single show.
4. Any protest, dispute of a final interpretation or any incident occurring during the course of a show should be brought to the attention of the International Show Committee. Final decisions regarding protests or interpretations will be expressly and exclusively reserved to the International Show Committee. By signing the required entry form, exhibitors give unqualified consent and agreement to abide by all printed rules.
5. While exhibiting cattle in the show ring, exhibitors will wear western attire appropriate to the climate. No ball caps or tennis shoes and no written advertising on clothing will be permitted. Exhibitors shall conduct themselves in a professional manner in the show ring. Class numbers shall be worn on the left side.
6. Calves shown at side in the haltered show must be on halter and led by an exhibitor. Animals must be kept under control at all times. Should an animal become unmanageable, the judge shall have the right and responsibility to remove such animals from competition and all entry fees will be forfeited.
7. Females over 30 months old must be shown with calf at side or be palpated safe in calf by a veterinarian with notation made on the health certificate.
8. No crossbred calves may be shown at side of cows.
9. Any exhibitors who remove their animals from the fairgrounds prior to the designated release time will forfeit all premiums.
