SECTION 1 - HONEY AND BEESWAX

Chairperson: Joyce Church

David Rak, President of Frederick County Beekeepers Association

Rules & Regulations:

1. Displays may include pictures and charts, but not bakery products, canned goods or other food related items that could be edible by the public during display. Maximum width of display is 8 feet.
2. All honey and beeswax must be the property of the exhibitor and must have been produced by him/her within a 12-month period prior to entry.
3. All honey exhibited must have been gathered and ripened in a natural way by honey bees.
4. No exhibitor's name or label will be allowed on any entry except Classes 20 and 21.
5. All cut comb honey must be packed in clear cut comb boxes, measuring $4\frac{1}{8}$ " x $4\frac{1}{8}$ ", or in clear round cut comb plastic containers approximately 4" in diameter, and for viewing entire comb portion.
6. A copy of the judge's score sheet will be provided for each entry at the close of the exhibition.
7. Competent judging is conducted. Judges may withhold prizes for insufficient merit and remove from public view any entry or part thereof which, in his/her opinion, discredits the exhibition.
8. A copy of the Standards for Honey Judging in Maryland is available upon request.
9. The exhibitor will select the class. If needed, assistance will be available for selecting the correct class. The superintendent/judge reserves the right to change the class selected, if necessary.
10. All extracted honey will receive equal points on color within the class.
11. Frame of honey must be supported vertically in a sealed rigid display case with transparent windows for viewing entire comb portion.
12. Bee craft includes drawings, paintings, pottery, needlework, batik, carvings, wax moldings depicting honey bees and beekeeping activities, etc.
13. All extracted honey entered in Classes 3-7 must be in standard one pound glass or clear plastic flat-faced standard honey jars.
14. All chunk honey (Class 10) and finely granulated honey (Class 12) must be in standard one pound round honey jars.
15. Pollen will be exhibited in one pound round or standard flat-faced honey jars, either glass or clear plastic jars. All pollen will be dried, one-half pound minimum or to fill line on jar (three jars) cleaned and dust free. Pollen entries may be of the single color or multi-color type, but must be three of the same entry.

16. Propolis - two ounce minimum, cleaned and free of wax, honey and debris. Padded flat between wax paper sheets or in a plastic bag.
17. Gift packs must include in one or more products of the hive, but may also include other items that enhance the appeal or promote the use of hive products. Gift packs should be suitable for personal gift use regardless of commercial applications. The gift pack should be a box, basket or other suitable container. Labels are permitted on gift packs, Classes 20–21.
18. Mailable gift packs must be prepared and displayed in a container and packing material that is suitable for shipping.
19. Honey Bee related photography (Class 24) will be judged strictly on photographic content. Framing is optional, but may enhance presentation points. Must arrive ready to hang, equipped with strong picture hanging wire.
20. Beekeeper entering for the first time only (Class 27), may exhibit honey in one pint glass canning jars or one pound standard glass or plastic flat-faced honey jars.
21. Multiple entries per household/family will be allowed in Classes 3-26, and will be scored (judged) independently. However, only the highest ranked entry per household/family may be awarded. A ribbon/premium if other entries would be denied higher ranking due to the multiple entries.

Honey Cookery

Entries in all classes must use honey for 50% or more of the sweetening with the following exceptions: frostings, fillings, glazes, dusts and meringue may contain up to 100% sugar. Honey used in entries does NOT need to have been produced by the exhibitor. Non-beekeepers are encouraged to enter honey cookery. Mixes and packaged prepared foods are not permitted. Each honey cookery entry must be accompanied by TWO copies of the recipe for entry. The ingredients in the entry must match the recipe. Recipes must not contain the exhibitor's name or other personal identification. Please identify the origin of the recipe (e.g. "personal", "National Honey Board"). Plates and protective covers must be supplied by the exhibitor.
